Dear Sir,

RE: TOY MEDIA RECOMENDATION

The above subject refers.

Based on our previous business dealings and the current existing relationship with Toy Media Limited, we can categorically state that Toy Media is a company of high repute, integrity and proper attention to the minutest detail.

We have worked with them on Four (4) major Media and PR projects with One (1) currently ongoing and I must say we are beyond satisfied with their level of professionalism and their approach to execution.

We have enjoyed their services for over Four (4) years and would highly recommend them to you.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if clarifications are required.

Yours faithfully,

Kola Odunayo
Chief Operating Officer
